Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme Report

Programme Title	: Anti-Ragging Awareness programme
Date	: 29-Aug-2024
Venue	: PKC - Room No: 510
Resource Person	: Dr. N. Lenin, Assistant Professor, Department of Language, PMIST

1. Program Overview:

The Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme was organized on 29th August 2024, in PKC Room No: 510, specifically targeting the first-year students of the B.Sc Computer Science program. The primary objective of the program was to raise awareness among the students about the adverse effects of ragging, the legal implications associated with it, and the steps that can be taken to maintain a ragging-free environment within the institution. This program is part of the institution's ongoing commitment to ensuring a safe and respectful academic atmosphere.

The Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme was organized to educate and inform the students of I B.Sc Computer Science about the importance of maintaining a ragging-free environment in the academic community. The session aimed to create awareness about the consequences of ragging and the steps students can take to prevent it.

2. Objectives of the Programme:

- ✓ To educate students on the harmful consequences of ragging and its impact on both the victims and the perpetrators.
- ✓ To inform students about the anti-ragging laws and regulations in place at both the institutional and national levels.
- ✓ To empower students with the knowledge and resources needed to take action against ragging.
- ✓ To promote a culture of mutual respect, understanding, and support within the student community.
- ✓ To ensure the integration of first-year students into the campus environment without fear or intimidation.

3. Detailed Programme Proceedings:

3.1. Welcome Address:

The programme commenced with a welcome address by Mr. Balaganesh, a B.Sc Computer Science student. Mr. Bala Ganesh warmly greeted the participants, setting a positive tone for the event. His introduction highlighted the importance of the Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme and the role students play in fostering a safe and inclusive campus environment.

3.2. Introduction to Anti-Ragging Laws:

Dr. N. Lenin, Assistant Professor, Department of Language, provided an overview of the anti-ragging laws and regulations in India. He detailed the legal definitions of ragging, the types of behaviors that constitute ragging, and the penalties that can be imposed on students found guilty of such actions. Dr. Lenin also explained the institution's zero-tolerance policy towards ragging and the procedures for reporting incidents.

3.3. Psychological Impact of Ragging:

Dr. Lenin continued with a presentation on the psychological impact of ragging on students. He discussed the short-term and long-term effects of ragging on the mental health and well-being of victims, including anxiety, depression, and loss of self-esteem. Dr. Lenin also stressed the importance of creating a supportive and inclusive environment where all students can thrive without fear.

3.4. Interactive Session:

The resource person then engaged the students in an interactive session, encouraging them to share their thoughts and experiences. This segment allowed students to ask questions and seek clarification on the topics discussed. Dr. Lenin provided practical advice on how to handle situations that might lead to ragging and how to support peers who may be at risk.

3.5. Conclusion and Vote of Thanks:

The programme concluded with a special moment where Dr. K. Thiyagarajan, Assistant Professor, Computer Science, honored the resource person Dr. N. Lenin, for his valuable contributions and insights shared during the session. This was followed by a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. V. Sathya, Assistant Professor, Computer Science. Dr. Sathya expressed her appreciation to Dr. Lenin for his valuable insights and to the students for their active participation. She reiterated the institution's commitment to fostering a safe and positive learning environment.

3.6. Anti-Ragging Affidavit Completion:

To conclude the programme, all participating students filled out the anti-ragging affidavit form. This step was crucial in reinforcing the commitment to maintaining a ragging-free environment within the institution. The affidavit serves as a formal declaration by the students, affirming their understanding of the consequences of ragging and their pledge to uphold a respectful and inclusive campus atmosphere.

6. Student Feedback:

Feedback from the participants indicated that the programme was well-received and highly informative. Many students expressed a greater understanding of the legal and psychological aspects of ragging and felt more confident about the procedures in place to prevent and report such incidents. The interactive nature of the session was particularly appreciated, as it allowed students to voice their concerns and receive guidance from experienced faculty members.

7. Outcomes:

The programme, students are expected to:

- Understand the legal implications of ragging and the severe consequences it can have on their academic and personal lives.
- Recognize the signs of ragging and know the steps to take if they or someone they know is being targeted.
- Contribute to a positive and respectful campus culture by standing against ragging and supporting their peers.
- Feel empowered to report incidents of ragging without fear of retaliation.
