Title of the programme: Tree Plantation 2024

Organized by : NSS

Date & Time: 26.10.2024 at 10:00am

Venue: Thirukkannurpeti, Vallam

Objectives of Tree Plantation Programme:

The Tree Plantation Programme in the National Service Scheme (NSS) aims to promote environmental awareness and sustainability through active participation. The key objectives of this initiative include:

- Environmental Conservation - To reduce deforestation, enhance greenery, and improve air quality by planting trees.
- Climate Change Mitigation - To combat global warming by increasing carbon sequestration and reducing greenhouse gas emissions.
- Biodiversity Promotion - To create habitats for birds, insects, and other wildlife, promoting ecological balance.
- Soil Conservation - To prevent soil erosion, improve soil fertility, and maintain groundwater levels.
- Awareness and Education - To educate NSS volunteers and the community on the importance of afforestation and environmental sustainability.
- Community Participation - To encourage collective action by involving students, faculty, and local communities in tree plantation activities.

Programme Report:

The Department of Education, PMIST successfully completed the event of Tree Plantation under the National Service Scheme at Thirukkannurpeti. Trees are the foremost source for producing the oxygen in environment, they helps to reduce the level of CO₂. As we all know that the whole world is facing the problem of global warming and to recover from such problem planting the trees is become one of the most important aspects today.

The event was began with the welcoming of guest Honorable President of Thirukkannurpeti Panchayat, Dr. C. Anusuya (a) Priya, NSS- Coordinator, and Dr. K. Kesavan, Assistant professor (SG), PMIST, Vallam. Welcome speech has been given by the Unit-IV Programme Officer Dr. S. Anand Gnana Selvam. At that time guest advice to volunteers to think differently for the Society to make positive changes and to make improvement, Total tree planted by all others including teachers, volunteers was more than 01 on the day. All were happy and experience proud after the tree plantation event was finished, because it really feels great to do positive for the nature.
