Programme No.	5	Topic of the Programme	Awarness on sexual Harassment And cultural factors.
Date	31.1.2024	Resource Persons	Ms. T. Alamelu Assistant Professor, Department of Social Work, Periyar Maniammai Institute of Science & Technology, Thanjavur.

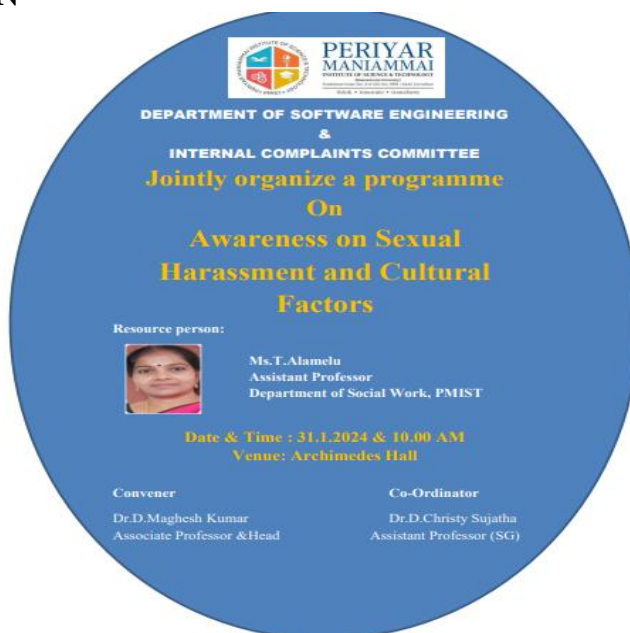

Time: 10.00 AM to 12.30 PM

Venue: Archimees Hall

OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAMME

The objective of sexual harassment is multifaceted, often involving the exertion of power, control, and dominance over another person through unwelcome sexual advances or behavior. Perpetrators may seek to assert their authority by subjecting their victims to humiliation, degradation, or discomfort, deriving satisfaction from their victims' vulnerability. Cultural factors play a crucial role in shaping the prevalence and perception of sexual harassment, with gender inequality, norms around sexuality, victim blaming, and lack of awareness contributing to its perpetuation. Addressing sexual harassment requires a concerted effort to challenge these cultural norms, promote education and awareness, and implement policies that hold perpetrators accountable while supporting and empowering victims to speak out against harassment.
